Personal data treatment

In the ambit of the subsequent contract, the contracting parties engage themselves to follow the current rules applicable to personal data treatment and, in details, the EU Regulation 2016/679 of the European Parliament and the Council, of 27 april 2016, applicable starting from 25 may 2018 ("European regulation on personal data protection" here indicated as "GDPR") and the national reference rules.

The collected data will be treated, according to GDPR, only in the ambit of the present procedure, for the award and subsequent stipulating of supply contract to which the present document refers. According to GDPR collected data are destined to the individuation of the contracting part and their provision is mandatory, provided that the economic operator who intends to participate in the procedure and then to stipulate the contract must give to the contractor all the documents requested by the current rules and by the present invitation letter. The missed production of the aforementioned documents determines the exclusion from the call or the award loss.
